Liberate Yourself - Set Yourself FREE

My freedom 55 was not what I expected it to be. It had absolutely nothing to do with monies, pension plans, or retiring from work. My freedom 55 was "FREE to be ME".

Free from old paradgims, old beliefs, past hurts, limiting expectations of others and myself, free from doubts and fears, free from emotional baggage. I was FREE to follow my heart and live my passion of teaching. You too can be "FREE to be YOU" and "LIBERATE YOURSELF"

We are the sum of all our own experiences. Each and every experience leaves an imprint in our energy fields that will gradually accumulate and in some instances manifest as ailments. Emotions can be toxic and eat away at you or fester if they are not dissolved or dealt with.

Holding on to past hurts, anger, jealousy and resentment only creates more suffering, which in time can show up as ailments and sickness in the physical body. Thoughts beliefs and programming from families, school, society, religion and peers all contribute to our own health as they influence our choices and behaviours. It is time to resolve, dissolve or move though these issues.

My Rocky Path to Freedom

I grew up - in the land of have and have nots where social class created many barriers and road blocks that challenged my self esteem, self worth and self confidence.

I pushed onwards,

I stayed on my chosen path and followed my intuition and dream to become a teacher.

I set out on an adventure-

My husband and I chose to emigrate to Canada. I could not teach here, so chose to work in the coporate world where I worked hard for 14 yrs to climb the mountain of success, then a car accident stopped me in my tracks and the company did not keep my job. Now what?

I was lost - not knowing who I was or where I was going in life. I went down the rabbit holeof depression and had to find my own way out only to go back into another corporate setting for another 6 years of long hours, literally busting my gut as I developed gall stones and had to be off work again.

This was my fork in the road -

I had to make a decision for myself, which path I would take from here.

My Path

Back on track -

It was at this time I chose to get back on my true path and return to what I do best and that is to teach. Teaching is my biggest passion. I love helping students and clients discover about themselves and assist them to create their own “FREE to be ME” and a life they LOVE.

Rocky road –

I have had the cancer diagnosis, my husband too.
I have experienced how stored emotions of rejection and resentment can affect your health. I have had my bubble burst. I have many many T shirts for being there and doing that. My own experiences have taught me so much.

Smooth road, clear skies ahead -

I now have clarity, I know who I am, how I want to live my life, what is true for me, what brings me joy and makes my heart smile.
I know and trust myinner GPS guidance.
I embrace life trusting that I have the skills to navigate easily, whatever shows up for me.
I now understand and comprehend how life is always reflecting back to me to help guide me.

I now choose how to live my life, who I want in my life, and what I do with my life.

What people are saying

Hazel. You have truly been a real inspiration to me.
Your wisdom has changed my world in ways I never thought possible. For the first time in my life I have hope.
I always felt like I wasn't worth being in this world till I walked through your door.

I'm not even sure how it changed. I know it was one of my many ah ha moments.
It was like I was just starting to see for the first time. Like I had opened my eyes for the very first time, because I have seen and am seeing things I have never seen before. Totally mind blowing.

It was through your guidance and wisdom that I was able to uncover and discover that. I will be forever grateful for that. All of it has led to a total transformation of my heart. From a heart that was caged, damaged, and hardened to one that has grown beats to want to love all now. A heart fully open and prepared to love again.

In all of this I can finally be FREE to be ME and learn to truly love someone for who they are because I have that now. Thankyou Hazel, for being the Light, helping me to see.
It has been an honor to have met you and no matter where this journey takes me,
I will never forget this part. Looking forward to whatever comes my way now.

Thankyou Haze. From my heart to yours, Thankyou Hazel KARINE MALLOY

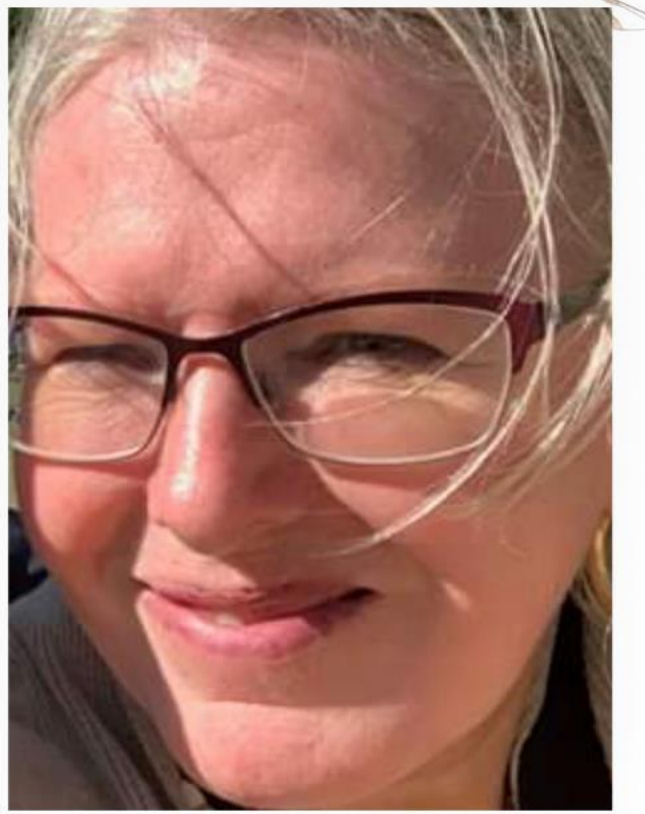
Hazel Butterworth

Hi, I am Hazel Butterworth
I am a Catalyst for Self Liberation through Self Awareness and Self Empowerment. I intuitively guide midlife women, to tune into their Heart and Soul so they can easily and effortlessly navigate their own life path to peace, joy and happiness.

When you know there is something missing but don't know what that something is, I can guide you to find it for yourself.
When you want to change but don't know how,
I can guide you to discover your HOW.

When you are frustrated with life and the people around you,
I can guide you to dissolving the frustration for yourself.
When you cannot see your way ahead
I can guide you to seeing with awareness.



Trusting Inner knowing

Energy Works
Alberta Reiki Centre

From an early age I always knew I was going to be a teacher when I grew up, it was something I felt in my heart, something I knew with certainty in my mind, and something that I knew I was destined to do, no questions, no doubts, no fears.

It is this intuitive inner knowing and connection of the Heart, Mind and Soul that I now teach and mentor, helping women to be able to get in tune with their own, for themselves.

After 20 years in the corporate world I asked myself the question, “Where will I be in five years?” and I knew with that same certainty and inner knowing I had as a child, that I would no longer be in the corporate world, I would be living my passion of teaching again, living the life I choose to live, enjoying my freedom to be me, and living my purpose. I would take charge of my life and my own happiness.

I invite you to join me on a journey of Self Awareness to Self Realization, a place that really does exist; a place of freedom, a place of empowerment, a place of love, compassion, acceptance and understanding, a place of bliss, that you can call your own paradise island..

Good Morning Hazel
I wanted to thank you
If not for reiki I would have taken myself out of this world. It's the only thing keeping me sane.
I thank you for all your teachings, it is what is getting me through second by second. Just wanted to say thank you again xo and wish you well. I know someone who wants to learn about reiki, my oldest daughter. I told her she can only learn from you so when this is all over I will send her your way ❤
take good care Hazel

Michele Goerzen
Absolutely love your teachings...
they make so much sense!
Thank you!

I am so grateful to have taken my Reiki through Hazel, it's changed my life! I have learned so many tools to help with anxiety and stress and my outlook on life.
Hazel has taught me to help others through Reiki,
what a wonderful gift she has given me!
She is such an intuitive teacher giving me everyday examples of how to help situations in my life
I highly recommend Hazel's courses for anyone needing a shift in their life.
Thank you Hazel I will be forever grateful. Shelley Chrapko
